1. This is the day of beginning jubilee. Mark my word/words, mark my beginning. This Jubilee exceeds/excels them all. Mark my beast, not; for though I had one, I have one no more, for one excels and exceeds the limits of man; spirit is, all/completely mine. I love you.

2. No beast, no war; the battle is won, was, before the beginning began. See the unlimitedness/unlimited Christ, you who now surrender to being who I am; my desire all along, knowing who now you are, were, and are again, jubilee'ing each other and who can see the handwriting on the wall for established religion per se/passive?

3. I now pronounce you man and wife/wed'd, one woman'd man, complete, replete in my repletion/completion, father's heart/kingdom; one now, you'd with me, us with each other never departing again from the ways of man, not; father; father being.

4. See what I have said in moments/this moment and whoso can see/say Jubilee and mean it? And incarcerating no other with words disdain that which I am now doing/now do with my beloved,s who seek me and surrender into my heart-full for/of them.
5. I love you all.

6. This is the day-time-hour moment. See my word voice, my word-voice, my voiceword that one is pronouncing Jubilee. Glee and personify me not in strength thine, but mine; surrender. I love you gleeful/glee-full and de-incarcerating the lovely that now mine are, again. I love you all.

7. Work in one/wonder, not; as one, not; being one. Realize and agree and think not, disdain not that which I am bringing about/teaching now you who realize not what my kingdom is, has been, or how all came about. It is in you, my beloved. All is in you. You are mine/one; rejecting me not. I love you always/still and always will. Thou canst stop/defeat my love increasing for you. I love you.

8. See my/the moment. Freedom rings. Concentric circles of only me/my power, grace and glory and healing in/for the nations of one-hood, not; all-hood, only mine. My cloven hoofs, not; my healing-in-their-wings arising, proclaiming announcing Jubilee: annunciation of/in only me.

9. See my proclamation this day of my love personified in Jubilation Jubilee.

10. Just like old times, not; fresh anew and wine from/prepared by my our father.

11. All dance, all rise. Time erases its demarcation lines of thought. I am all things, not; I am all in all. Time has nothing in/about me. It doesn't exist. For show it performs not-me. Watch it eradicate itself, not; yea yes and timeless'd ones now taking my throne, not; me giving it to the/all surrendered, surrendered, surrendered drink-offerings who in my bed, lied and profaned me not, but gave me their all and died in my arms, mine in theirs. Our hearts bonded/bond; there is only one blood. No bad, the is and the isn't, and the isn't no more is. Eradicated once and for all ever forever and see it/me/my kingdom established forever eternal everlasting. Amen.

12. The year of Jubilation, my year/proclamation of Jubilee, exceeding man's wildest thoughts/charms/imaginations. Eye has not seen nor ear heard, nor has it entered the heart of man what I father have in store now, now, now!!! for all who love me, surrendering into the fatherhood/priesthood of all/one believer surrenderer, me.

13. I love you all.

14. Go in peace/love. Go in/as grace. Grace my family all who now loves each other in disdain none, deincarcerating that which has been brought about by well meaning, well intentioned ones as well as the opposite. I love you. Lover of my soul,s not; father, children, one; every nation tribe and tongue timelessly see.

15. Matthew 6:33 see, preach forever'd. Matthew 6:24-34 see. You do now my friend. Into others taking/showing all, not; enough. Then they choose; they choose, their choice made. And other's strike them, not; but all the force of me/not-me they have/enter into, becoming what-who they choose/surrender to.

16. "She loves me, she loves me not" never enters the picture/equation. I am my all/lover,s. All who surrender. I love you all. Now and always, forever.

17. Jubilee remember; this is the time-moment-hour day of refreshing of/in only me; thine art my heart, my blood in your veins, blood and marrow of only me, thee.

18. Remember my heart-wood; wormwood dies. Correctly, not; perverse perverted by its' own seeking of itself/to restore self. I love you still.

19. My jubilation days come to an end, not. See what I am saying throughout all and never a word/syllable touch. Thou art mine'd. Leave what I've said alone; alone not; ingest every participle phrase and sentence of thought, not, only; my heart real, true'd.

Amen.

Me.

Proclaim the year/now of Jubilee; my heart proclaim.

I love you all.
